REMONA'S STORY

Before coming to The Drake House, Remona was homeless and addicted to drugs. Today she has been clean and sober for eight years, has a great job, and is well on her way to home ownership. During HomeAid's February 11 dedication ceremony at The Drake Village, Remona said, "Thank God for allowing me to come full circle." She expressed gratitude for the shelter, classes, love, and support she and her son received at The Drake House. She thanked HomeAid Atlanta, saying, "Thank you for your hand in building the housing where I could learn to do better."
