We're In This Together!

During this time of uncertainty, many of you have reached out to us to see how you can help the most vulnerable among us during this crisis. We are so grateful to have such giving people walking beside us to help HomeAid and our service provider partners get through this. Prior to the current and varied restrictions on movement and gathering, we were gearing up for our 19th Annual Essentials Drive. Rather than cancel this annual effort to collect diapers and wipes for mothers and babies in need, we decided to go virtual and expand it!

As an industry we use masks and protective eyewear daily. As you probably know, there is a drastic shortage of this ESSENTIAL Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) for those who need it most right now—the medical professionals on the front lines. There is a national effort to collect these items, and we NEED to do our part. Please collect masks and protective eyewear, and drop them off at one of several metro Atlanta Builders FirstSource locations. Click the button to the right to find one near you. Special thanks to our friends at Ashton Woods for coordinating the collection efforts locally.

We created shopping lists for each of our individual service provider partners, and the great news is that you can support HomeAid while fulfilling these urgent needs! Click the button below, finalize your purchase through Amazon Smile after choosing HomeAid Atlanta as your charity, and Amazon will donate a portion of each purchase to HomeAid.

Many Atlanta babies and their Moms need a little extra help.

Finally, no one knows the full impact of this evolving situation, but we certainly anticipate an increased need to add beds for our neighbors experiencing homelessness on the back end of this as we begin to realize the full economic impact. We will need your support more than ever to help build new lives!

We will all get through this thing together. I'm so thankful to all of you that are doing what you can each day to help ensure that we emerge stronger on the other side.

Thanks so much for all you do to Build New Lives!
