

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Mandy Crater
678.775.1401
info@homeaidatlanta.org
www.homeaidatlanta.org

TAYLOR MORRISON SUPPORTS HOMEAID ATLANTA

National home builder contributes funds and expertise to building industry nonprofit.

ATLANTA, GA – JUNE 7, 2021 – Taylor Morrison and HomeAid Atlanta have partnered to make a major impact in building new lives for families and individuals experiencing homelessness in metro Atlanta.

Taylor Morrison is currently collaborating with HomeAid Atlanta and New River Building Company to complete a unique renovation at North Georgia Angel House (NGAH) in Canton, which provides a safe, home-like setting for girls in the foster care system. Taylor Morrison Atlanta Division's Ronnie Cline is heading up efforts to convert a large storage facility into five efficiency apartments for girls transitioning out of foster care. The project kicked off last month.

Taylor Morrison also provided generous support for HomeAid's 20th Annual Essentials Drive to collect diapers and baby wipes for metro Atlanta families experiencing homelessness. Atlanta Division employees gave generously in support of the initiative, which has collected and distributed over 1.5 million baby supplies since 2002.

Rick Carruthers, Taylor Morrison Atlanta Division President, presents a check to Mandy Crater, HomeAid Atlanta Executive Director, on April 1.

On April 1, Atlanta Division President Rick Carruthers presented HomeAid Atlanta with a generous donation in support of general operations funded through employee contributions to support local organizations. "We are so excited to have the continued support of Taylor Morrison! They have not only contributed financially, Rick has joined our board and they are already working on a new construction project at North Georgia Angel House. We are so blessed to have such dedicated volunteers. I can't thank Taylor Morrison enough for all that they do to help us build new lives," said Mandy Crater, Executive Director of HomeAid Atlanta.

Taylor Morrison also generously supported HomeAid Atlanta in 2020. The company completed a total bathroom renovation at NGAH, and volunteers painted, repaired a deck, and more. Additionally, Taylor Morrison provided $21,000 worth of furniture, accessories, kitchen and bath hardware, and artwork for NGAH through HomeAid's Stock the House Drive. Taylor Morrison also supported the 2020 Essentials Drive, holding a fundraising drive among employees, as well as matching funds raised.

The company's 2020 efforts in support of HomeAid not only earned them a Gold OBIE award for the Best Community Service Project at the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association's 2020 OBIE Awards ceremony, but it also helped Taylor Morrison win HomeAid Atlanta's 2020 Volunteer of the Year Award.

"We are always pleased to be able to help out our partners at HomeAid! They have been tireless in their efforts to support our community throughout the Covid-19 Pandemic and in years prior. We pledge our partnership for years to come." said Rick Carruthers.

HomeAid Atlanta is a nonprofit organization founded in 2001 that builds new lives for families and individuals experiencing homelessness through housing and community outreach. HomeAid builds, renovates, and maintains facilities for nonprofits serving people experiencing homelessness. Celebrating its 20th year of service in 2021, HomeAid has completed over 140 construction projects at locations for victims of domestic violence, teen mothers, veterans and more, utilizing connections with building industry professionals and community organizations. HomeAid also provides essential items like diapers, wipes, and hygiene products to those affected by homelessness. HomeAid is the designated charity of the Greater Atlanta Home Builders Association. Learn more at www.homeaidatlanta.org.

##